

Phil Crowley was born at Dyess Air Force Base and raised in Abilene, Texas. Phil is a graduate of the Abilene Independent School District and Hardin-Simmons University, where he also currently serves as an Adjunct Professor. Phil graduated from Texas Wesleyan School of Law (now Texas A&M School of Law) in 2013 and returned home to practice law. Phil was in private practice for a year and half prior to joining the Taylor County District Attorney's Office in 2015, where he spent seven and half years as a prosecutor. Phil won the Republican Primary for Taylor County Judge in March, 2022 and was elected Taylor County Judge in November, 2022 and assumed Office January 1, 2023. Phil attends Beltway Parkway Church and is a board member for the Alliance for Women and Children, Regional American Red Cross, and is a member of Kiwanis Club.